Residential Burglary

Case# 16A104958

Montgomery County Sheriff's Deputies responded to a burglary in-progress at 186 West Evangeline Oaks Circle. Witness reportedly observed two black males forcing their way in the rear door of their neighbor's home. Deputies arrived within a few minutes of the call and observed the actors jumping over the fence.

A perimeter was established and K9 units attempted to track the suspects. The scent was lost and it is believed that the suspects fled into the National Forest directly behind the neighborhood. The area was checked and suspects were not found.

Deputies located a nearby home that had outside surveillance cameras which showed the two possible suspects (see attached photo). The actors were observed to be wearing gloves and running away from the immediate area. Pillow cases containing miscellaneous items were located next to the residence that was burglarized.
